Happy Fall everyone
Bingo appears to have been successful again this year. This could not be accomplished without the hours of work Linda K and Nelda invested as well as the support of each member who painted table favors, door prizes and quilt squares not to mention the beautiful quilting provided by Jo Ann. Many thanks to Luann for keeping things moving and for all of those who provided goodies and were able to help set up and clean up. Great teamwork! We have a full agenda for our November 16 meeting. Hope to see all of you there.

Joyce

SHARING MEMORIES

It seems to me that it's a good season for yelling--(I don't mean about politics). You could have attended a soccer match, a football game, a rodeo, a pickleball tournament or a volleyball event. Was the last thing that caused you to yell out loud TOUCH-DOWN! SCORE! YEAH! GOAL! GREAT RIDE! NOT MORE LEAVES TO RAKE! Or, perhaps, you yelled YAHTZEE! BINGO! or BUNCO!! or a boastful "I beat you again", "I'm the greatest".

There are lots of competitions in life--some major, some minor. Some are an easy fix, some seem too massive to handle. Many of our members have had or are having major life events but they are managing to handle them. We have been blessed to have developed coping skills over the years They didn't say it would be easy. Life goes on, as they say.

But for our memory box recipients, one life does not go on. They doubt that they will ever be happy again. When presented with a hand-painted memory box, a smile will show through their tears. You have shown love, given comfort, and have made a difference. You're a winner!! You're the greatest!!

MEMORY BOXES ARE ALWAYS NEEDED

Cute Ideas for a Memory Box!

On behalf of the Bunco committee thanks for everyone's help. The numbers are still coming together but it looks to be a very profitable year. Thanks Luann for the wonderful job you did as MC. If you haven't started your exchange for the holiday exchange be thinking of it. Dec will be here before we know it. See you in Nov at our meeting.
